Seek relief from flood conditions in Elk Grove Twp.

Neighboring towns may aid in control of Salt Creek basin

Nearly 35 years ago a drainage district was organized under the farm drainage law in Elk Grove township, at which time Salt Creek was dredged, straightened and adequate bridges built with the aid of the county highway department. That was in 1907. The job needs doing over again and a group of farm owners who reside along Salt Creek have taken the initial steps for the reorganization of the district under the Drainage and Levy Act.

In response to a petition filed with Arthur H. Heimsath, township clerk, an election was held Sept. 19 at the home of Louis Heimsath. The vote was 13 to 0 in favor of the reorganization of the district.

A petition was subsequently filed in the county court of Cook county setting forth the above facts. In the near future it is expected that the new district will be able to contract for surveys and plans for work that will bring relief to the land owners of Elk Grove township.

An invitation is to be extended to farmers in Palatine and Wheeling township to either become a part of the new district or organize a similar district in order that the work of rehabilitating salt creek as a drainage stream can be consummated.

Many of the larger farm owners have signified to Attorney A. F. Wild their desire to have a part in the improvement work. Included among these are farm owners of the 500 acres comprising Arlington Park, Walter Senne, and others.

An improvement of Salt Creek will probably force the village of Palatine to face a job which that municipality has been side-stepping for some time. The state water survey has repeatedly asked Palatine to install a sewage treatment plant. Palatine is broke and has done nothing. With land owners taking the initiative, in improving the stream through their properties, the state board will probably again get busy and ask the village of Palatine to get busy on the long delayed sewage treatment plant.

New series of children pictures are on the way

Paddock Publications will again publish pictures of children the coming winter. Rutledge Studio, of Oak Park is taking the pictures. When their representative calls and snaps the picture of your little tot, there is no obligation on your part to order any copies from the studio in order to have the picture appear in the Paddock papers. All pictures taken will appear in this paper except those which show the baby or child in a way that would not be complimentary to the subject.

The publication of the coming series of baby pictures is not limited to those taken by the Rutledge Studio. Any mother who furnishes this office with a suitable glossy unmounted print will receive the same service as do those visited by the Rutledge organization.

The publishers have found that the baby picture feature is enjoyed by many readers. One mother is placing in the baby book of her child clippings of her playmates that may appear in the paper.

In order that no person will knowingly be left out, families who may have been missed can phone the publication office and arrangements will be made for a photographer to call.

In order to protect the mothers and this paper we ask that any photographer who appears at the home be asked to present his credentials from Paddock Publications, showing that he is an authorized photographer. This will prevent customers from being victimized.

Churches unite in Thanksgiving service, Nov. 19

A union Thanksgiving service with three of the churches in Arlington Heights participating, will be held on Wednesday night preceding Thanksgiving at 8 o'clock at the first Methodist church. The churches taking part in the service will be the Presbyterian church, St. John's Evangelical church and the First Methodist church.

The Rev. William Kamphenkel, pastor of St. John's Evangelical church, will preach the sermon on "The Attitude of Gratitude." Pastors of the other two churches will take part in the service.

The combined choirs of the three churches will furnish music under the direction of Mr. Jack Everett.

An invitation to attend this service is cordially extended to the public.

Early paper next week

On account of Thanksgiving and to give advertising service to food stores all editions of the Paddock Publications will be printed early next week, which will also enable all subscribers to receive their paper prior to the holiday. Deadlines for the several papers are:

Arlington Heights Herald Monday noon.

Classified adv. page (all editions) Monday noon.

Cook County Herald, Monday evening.

Palatine Enterprise, Tuesday morning.

DuPage Co. Register and Roselle Register, Tuesday noon.

The cooperation of reporters and advertisers is requested.

Arlington man escapes injuries in train wreck

Guy Davis, Arlington Heights resident, was one of the fifteen lucky persons out of 77 passengers in the train wreck Sunday night in which twelve were killed and fifty injured near Kenton, Ohio. The wreck was caused by a train derailment, supposedly brought about when a cylinder head of a freight locomotive blew off, landing on the track used by the passenger train.

Mrs. Davis received a phone call about 10:30 that evening that her husband had been in a wreck, but was uninjured. She waited two hours before her husband could secure phone connections and she was certain that Mr. Davis was not in a hospital or otherwise hurt.

Guy Davis, who is an advertising executive of the firm of Beaumont & Hohman, was riding in the lounge car, third from the locomotive, told similar stories.

"I was playing bridge in the lounge car," said Davis, "when I heard a crash in the front of the train. I ran into the corridor thinking to avoid flying furniture, but when the car began to jolt over the ties, I grabbed a window and hung on."

"When the car stopped moving most of the passengers were on the floor and the car was tilted at an angle of 70 degrees. I climbed up the slope and out of a window. Several persons in the car were cut."

Mr. Davis continued his journey on a relief train and is now in Philadelphia.

Mayor's proclamation

Whereas, a state of unlimited national emergency has been proclaimed by the President of the United States, and

Whereas, the morale and well-being of the members of our armed forces are the responsibility of every citizen, and

Whereas, no community is immune from the hazards of natural disaster, and

Whereas, the President of the United States has appealed to us all to join in a concerted campaign to improve public health and safety, and

Whereas, the American Red Cross is equipped by training, experience and Congressional authorization to act as the official service agency of the members of our military and naval forces and their families; to aid the victims of disaster in time of emergency; and to conduct community programs of training in health, safety and accident prevention.

Now, therefore, as Mayor of Arlington Heights, Ill., I hereby designate the period between Armistice Day and November 30, as the time when all our citizens are to join the American Red Cross, and I further urge that their membership contributions be prompt and generous.

Signed, Albert W. Goedke, Mayor.

Death of Mt. Prospect man caused by icy pavement

George Huppert, 34, a new resident of Mt. Prospect, died Monday in St. Francis hospital, Evanston, of injuries suffered Saturday when his automobile skidded on icy pavement, and ran into a tree. The accident occurred on Rand rd., about a mile east of Des Plaines. His companion, Robert Sullivan, 32, of 1249 Hood ave., was seriously injured.

The funeral will be held Thursday in Chicago.

Deceased leaves a wife and a son.

State game warden finds few violations

Frank Chitty, deputy game warden, is finding few violations of state game laws. "Never saw such an orderly crowd of hunters," stated Mr. Chitty Tuesday when he appeared before Judge Behrens with a Chicago man and son who were target shooting near the Elk Grove Forest Preserve. The judge dismissed the latter case, and is still waiting for his first pheasant case.

Ask bids for Arlington school addition

Wage rates are specified in advertisement

Arlington Heights board of education of the elementary schools will soon learn if the $50,000 bond issue at their disposal will be sufficient to erect the proposed addition to the south school. The advertisement asking for the bids appears in this issue of the Herald and includes the rate of pay that shall be paid by the contractor to the men employed on the job.

Since the voters gave their approval of the school addition many things have happened that may make it difficult to secure a bid that will be within the amount that the school board has to spend on the project.

Bids will be opened Friday evening, Nov. 28, in the assembly room of the north school. Godfrey E. Larson, Inc. are the architects. They also handled the present north school, the addition to the high school and a number of other school buildings in this part of Cook county. Mr. Larson will make every effort to make possible the school addition that is so greatly needed even if changes in the original plans may be necessary.

Des Plaines park board asks Arlington 'how'd you do it?'

Arlington Heights park board had visitors Tuesday evening. They were members of the Des Plaines Park Board who came on a friendly call. They were made welcome by the local board, which was delighted to receive this evidence of the friendly relationship that exists between the officials of the two communities.

The visitors admitted early in the evening that there was another reason for their visit. They wanted to find out in what manner the consent of the voters was obtained to the recreation tax.

President Volz explained to the visitors that it was easily done. The voters of Arlington Heights realized the necessity of the tax if the park plant was to be kept in operation, "that was how Arlington did it," stated Mr. Volz.

Des Plaines finds itself in the same position as Arlington Heights and many other communities. It is impossible to provide adequate recreation facilities without adequate taxes.

Arlington Heights was the first park board in Illinois to receive authority since the passage of the law, to levy the recreation tax. They have received many inquiries from other park boards since announcement was made at the recent state convention of park boards.

Following the conference there was an adjournment for refreshments and a very enjoyable social hour followed. There was a general exchange of ideas that was beneficial to both boards.

V.F.W. Thanksgiving dance Nov. 19 at Field house

The Veterans of Foreign Wars and Auxiliary are holding their third annual Thanksgiving dance Wednesday evening, November 19, at Recreation Park field house, Arlington Heights. Heine's orchestra will furnish the music for old and modern dances.

Ten turkeys will be given away by the Arlington V. F. W. at the Arlington Recreation alleys next Monday evening. The turkeys average about twelve pounds.

Police officer gets account no. 1

Checkmaster account No. 1 went to Ira Melbourne, of the Arlington Heights police force Friday morning, the opening day for Checkmaster accounts at the Arlington Heights National Bank. Ira has been interested in the establishment of the Checkmaster system and was on hand bright and early to make his deposit and to get the pass book number one. "Easy as it is to establish a Checkmaster account," said Ira, "that check book in my breast pocket gives me a feeling that I am just as good as any nabob in town. Ira is right and many others who never had a bank account are today enjoying bank accounts the Checkmaster way."

The man behind the glass is Wm. Gronert, Jr., assistant cashier.

Local Navy boy returns from Iceland; Africa is next

The navy recruiting office says "Join the Navy and see the world." That is just what Herbert Malzahn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Malzahn, is doing. He returned from Iceland three weeks ago and is today in the U. S. Navy hospital at Chelsea, Mass. His ship recently left for Africa and he may not be able to rejoin it until January when it returns to the U. S.

In the meantime he is hoping for a leave of absence. Herbert's first year of enlistment in the Navy ended Oct. 3.

Arlington man reports attempted theft of car

Arthur R. Mueller, 7 No. Vail ave., Arlington Heights, reported to the Des Plaines police Thursday that some one attempted to get into his car, which was parked on Miner st., between Lee and Pearson, while he was in the show.

Mr. Mueller said some one had broken off the left front wing of the window in an effort to get the car open.

Catherine ready for state license applications

If you are one of those who seek a repetition of this year's state license number, application for 1942 license should be made at once, says Catherine Behrens, who is the young lady at the Plentie & Behrens real estate office who hopes to beat the license record that was made by her brother last year. She has the forms on hand.

Brilliant debate looms November 27 on Forum calendar

Prof. Maynard Krueger, who will appear on the Nov. 27 program of the Community Forum in a debate with Paul H. Douglas, comes to Arlington Heights with a brilliant record as a student and as a speaker. Completing his education with three years of study in Western and Central Europe, he served on the faculty of the University of Pennsylvania, then joined the Economics Department of the University of Chicago.

Prof. Krueger is opposed to American entry into the present war. He believes that war means the destruction of democracy rather than its preservation. Even a Hitler victory, he feels, would therefore be preferable to American participation. He has frequently discussed war and unemployment as the two major problems which democracy must solve in order to survive. He believes these problems to be closely connected.

The views of Prof. Krueger concerning the effects on American business of a Hitler victory over the British Empire and Russia will be especially interesting. Can Americans do business with Hitler? If so, on whose terms? How must America reorganize its economic system to take up slack if foreign markets are lost? Will a tremendous public works program, financed by even heavier taxes than present levies be necessary? Must America turn imperialist, forcing Latin America to trade on our terms? If Asia, Africa, and Europe are closed to our trade? As an isolationist in the present war situation, Prof. Krueger will be prepared to answer these questions and to face opposing arguments of Prof. Paul Douglas.

With Prof. Douglas firmly committed to the foreign policy followed by the American government, the clash of opinion between these men will give Forum-goers an evening of brilliant debate.

The meeting will be held in the auditorium of the Arlington Heights high school at 8:15 o'clock on Thursday, Nov. 27.

Newspaper files tell of early days here

Donated copies to be filed for historic purposes

Paddock Publications is collecting old copies of local newspapers for historic purposes. They will be later turned over to a local historical society or to a library that provides permanent facilities for their preservation. Until the collection is as complete as possible, it will remain in the office of Paddock Publications.

The past week the editor had the privilege of looking through some newspaper files that were found by C. H. Williams, among the belongings of his father, the late W. C. Williams, former publisher of Cook County Herald, Palatine Enterprise, the Cook County Chronicle and Arlington Heights Advertiser. The latter was a shopper of which a thousand copies were printed the first week of each month for "circulation throughout the country — the greatest advertising medium," so stated the publisher, W. C. Williams, in its third issue, under date of Aug. 9, 1875.

Carpenters employed on the former Wink residence at Palatine found some old copies of the Semi-Weekly Inter Ocean of Chicago and copies of the Cook County Herald, published in 1877 and 1878.

These and other newspaper files that have come to the attention of Paddock Publications show that there were frequent changes in newspaper ownership. W. C. Williams figured rather prominently in these. During the various years, he is listed as either a partner or publisher of various publications.

From these records the present owners of the Herald and the Enterprise will try to reconstruct the history of these two newspapers. Extracts from the old papers will appear from week to week under the heading, "News of Yesterday," which is a regular feature of this paper. As these newspapers cover several towns, the reprinted items will not be confined to any one community.

The star item for this week is an account of a party held at the home of A. G. Chessman, Esq., in Itasca. The guests, who attended this party sixty-five years ago, have all died except two, Mr. Chessman, the host of the evening, and Nellie Noyce, (Mrs. Nellie Best).

The success of the collection of old newspapers will depend on the cooperation of our readers who may have in their possession copies that are older than 1900. While the fire in former plant of H. C. Paddock Sons, on Thanksgiving Day in 1938 destroyed some of the current files, they are fairly complete for the last forty years.

If you have old copies and are willing to pass them on to future generations, the publishers will see that they are properly preserved.

Farm laborer killed when he walks in front of Palatine car

Michael Zunda, 60, 845 Milwaukee ave., a farm laborer, was instantly killed at Dempster rd. and Harlem ave. about 6:30 Tuesday evening when he walked in front of a car being driven towards Chicago by George Thompson, of Palatine.

At the inquest held Wednesday morning at the Oehler funeral home, Des Plaines, Thompson stated that he did not see the man until the impact. He stopped immediately. Thompson was exonerated of all blame.

Zunda had been employed by John Kath, of Dempster st. and had expected to return to the job the following morning.

Four accidents in nine hours; 3 pedestrians hurt

When the Arlington Heights police authorities resolved to stop the current accident rate, they met little cooperation from the weather man. This week's quota was more than filled as snow, rain, and dark days frustrated the efforts of the police officers. Four accidents occurred within a few hours of each other. However, there were no serious injuries.

Saturday was the black letter day, marred by three accidents. One casualty of the day was Jimmie Schwartz, 8 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto E. Schwartz, 515 S. Belmont, who, while playing in the road, was struck by the automobile of Dr. C. W. Bates, 512 S. Beverly Lane. The accident occurred at Belmont and Park sts. He received head and leg bruises.

While making a "U" turn on the Northwest highway, Henry Schueneman, N. State rd., collided with the car of Arthur Larson, 6732 N. Campbell st., Chicago. No one was injured.

Vincent Jakubiec, 213 S. Chestnut, ran down two pedestrians at the intersection of Dunton and the Northwest highway as he was turning left from the highway. Albert Berhardt, 78, 933 N. Walnut, and Thomas Davidson, of the same address, 58, received minor injuries.

Frank Brodman, 23 S. Evergreen, and Emmett Lamasney, Crystal Lake, met in collision at the Vail st. and the highway early Sunday morning. No one was hurt.

Morris Fessler is prisoner in Germany

Morris Fessler, who was an Arlington Heights resident until two years ago, is a prisoner in Germany. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Fessler, Los Altos, Cal., former Arlington Heights residents, have been notified by the Canadian government that he made a forced landing in France.

Morris had previously been cited for bravery in tree cropping, destruction of important railroad used by the Germans. He fired at a freight engine, which blew up and also struck a second engine.

Mr. Fessler is a member of the Royal Canadian air force. After finishing school at Milwaukee, he went to California to enter airplane defense work. A year ago he joined the Canadian air force, leaving immediately for England. He was first engaged in flying the Spitfires, then was an instructor, later was on escorting duty to bombers and recently took over bombing work. Three other American flyers were reported missing in the same press dispatch that told of Fessler's failure to return.

Schaumburg worker is rewarded by Gov. Green

Roger Kappa, who has been working in the insurance office of E. P. Steinbrink at Palatine for the last several years, started work Monday as clerk and stenographer at the state police headquarters at Harlem ave. and Irving Park Blvd.

Mr. Kappa was an active worker in Schaumburg township for the nomination and election of Gov. Dwight H. Green and was sponsored for his new position by the Green leaders of Schaumburg township.

St. John's church host to women's federation

St. John Evangelical & Reformed church will be host to the women of Arlington Heights Federation Friday. Approximately 150 ladies are expected to attend.

Beginning with registration at 9:45, Rev. W. F. Kamphenkel will lead the devotions. In keeping with the theme, Christianity and Democracy, Mrs. Lawrence Kuester will speak on "Home, School and church in relation to Christianity and Democracy."

The guest soloist for the day is Mrs. Geo. Seigmeier of Elgin. The business meeting will close the morning session.

After the noon luncheon, the meeting will again open with devotions. Mrs. Robert Lenhart will use as the basis of her talk, "Youth in Relation to Christianity in Democracy."

A report of the recent national Women's Guild meeting held in Louisville, Kentucky, Nov. 5, 6, 7, will be given by the Federation's two delegates.

The high school girl's ensemble will favor the guests with two selections.

Turkey feast for Lions and ladies Tuesday evening

Arlington Heights Lions club are holding their annual Thanksgiving banquet and ladies night next Tuesday evening at the St. Peter's school at 6:30 o'clock. Turkey and all the trimmings for a good old fashioned Thanksgiving dinner will be prepared by the Dorcas Aid of the church. Lion President Evert requests that reservations be made with any of the club's board of directors by Saturday evening.

With the ladies as guests the Lions have arranged for a program that will especially appeal to them. Helen Hay will give "The Lady of Godey's." Mrs. Hay presented "The Gibson Girl" at a Woman's club luncheon last year.

Army of hunters take to the field

With the opening of the pheasant season Monday an army of hunters swarmed over the fields of the pheasant country in search of the wily ring necks.

Many hunters came home with some birds but there were lots of humorous incidents related where from three to five hunters would bang, bang, bang at a bird only to see the prospective victim sail merrily on his way.

Most of the farms are posted against hunters and hunting is only permitted on those farms by the permission of the owners.

After the first day or two of banging, the pheasants become foxxy and take refuge in protected areas such as the forest preserves and the outlying tracts within village limits.

Some arrests were reported of hunters who were caught within village limits.

"I got my limit," is the often repeated word about town as men who never have a gun in their hand except during the open pheasant season, boastfully say that they got theirs. The pheasant's reply is, "how could you miss us?"

Des Plaines passes bicycle ordinance

City of Des Plaines passed a bicycle ordinance last week that is similar to that which Arlington Heights Lions Club is asking for Arlington Heights.

The ordinance will license all bicycles. Each owner will be required to make application for a license at the city clerk's office. He will be required to pay a fee of 25 cents. He will then have to present his receipt and his bicycle to the police department where the wheel will be inspected to determine if the brakes are in good order, if it has a reflector, head light and a warning signal such as a bell or horn. If it passes the tests, a small license plate will be given the owner which must be fastened onto the bicycle.

Should the owner then violate any traffic law, he will be required to give up his license and the police may impound his bicycle for not more than 90 days.

Watch for Campfire cookie girls

The Good Neighbors of Arlington Heights are asked to watch for the Campfire girls wearing their arm emblems of the crossed logs and flame, who will be calling at the homes of the village this week selling Camp Fire cookies.

This annual cookie sale is organized from Chicago go to further the work of the district and local campfire organizations.

The cookies are attractively packaged in cellophane and are butter cookies in chocolate and almond flavors. There are 30 cookies in a package which sell for 20c. All who order Campfire cookies will be given a Campfire Emblem for window display in order to facilitate canvassing. Sales will end November 15 and orders will be filled soon after.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Adam and Fallen Man" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, November 9.

The Golden Text was, "Put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts; and be renewed in the spirit of your mind" (Ephesians 4, 22, 23).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous. That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord" (Romans 5: 19, 21).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: Through discernment of the spiritual opposite of materiality, even the way through Christ, Truth, man will reopen with the key of divine Science the gates of Paradise which human beliefs have closed, and will find himself un-fallen, upright, pure, and free, not needing to consult almanacs for the probabilities either of his life or of the weather, not needing to study brainology to learn how much of a man he is" (p. 171).

Cub pack news

The Cubs of Pack 232 are going to hear one of their favorite authors next week. Friday at the regular Pack meeting, he is Mr. John Y. Beatty, well known to the youth of Arlington Heights because he so generously gives of his lectures and nature stories every year. His subject will be "Birds of the Air, Land and Sea," and he will illustrate his talk with colored pictures.

Mr. Beatty has written a number of books about birds, animals, insects, as well as about rivers, mountains, farms and cities. Several of these books are used as school text books all over the country. He is editor of "Bankers' Monthly" in Chicago, and lives right here in Arlington Heights.

All parents are invited to come along with their Cub Scouts. Others are also invited, especially members of the P.T.A., which is the sponsoring organization of the local Pack.

In spite of the damp, chilly weather, a large number of Cubs marched in the Armistice parade Tuesday morning. They were all in uniform.

Dale Anderson has information about several uniforms for sale. Any Cub desiring a used uniform should get in touch with Mr. Anderson, telephone 703. Likewise, anybody having a Cub uniform for sale should give Mr. Anderson information about the size and condition. New uniforms can be purchased for about $5.65 complete at the Boy Scout Trading Post in Chicago, or at several department stores in Chicago, Des Plaines and Barrington.

High school pupils to appear in radio's Citizens of Tomorrow

Cook county high schools will participate again this year in the third series of "Citizens of Tomorrow" half hour weekly broadcasts. Recordings of this program will be played at 1:30 p. m. Sunday afternoon over radio station WGN. The recording will be made each Wednesday afternoon from 4:30 to 5 from the WGN studio theater. In the past two years thirty-nine high schools from Chicago and Cook county have been heard on this program.

Philip Maxwell will return to the air as the "Principal" in the "Citizens of Tomorrow" program. With him will be "Jerry" and "Jimmie" who have played the part of the irrepressible students.

Each program will honor two or three outstanding high school seniors; their achievements will be told by Mr. Maxwell and their names inscribed on the "Citizens of Tomorrow Roll of Honor." Last year twenty-five of these students were granted scholarships valued at more than $20,000 to 19 universities and colleges of the middle west.

The producer of the new series "Citizens of Tomorrow" will be Blair Walliser and Harold Turner, WGN pianist, will be the accompanist.

On your toes!

The big day is drawing closer and closer, there's not much time left, so, brother, get on your toes. Fetch your date right quick, another male may have already snagged your lovely dancing doll. And that surely won't do.

Give vent to that urge, you rug cutters, waltzers, and what have you. Give out with all you've got, you'll feel much better for it. Dance from 10 till 2, who cares? You can sleep and sleep till all hours the next morning, no alarm clock buzzing in your ear, no train to catch, no coffee to gulp down in two seconds. Isn't life wonderful?

The Itasca Country Club is the glorious spot for the Arlington Heights Junior Woman's club's winter formal. Music will be furnished by Del Baker's superb orchestra, from ten till two. And you know when the big event comes off — the date's been on your lips for weeks — November 22, folks, so, on your toes.

33RD DIVISION MOTHERS' NOTES

The 33rd Division of Women's club had a very successful party at Palatine last Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Edw. B. Dearie, Jr., chairman of the Arlington Heights unit of the 33rd Division, attended the Governor's Ball at the Palmer House on Armistice Day. The speakers were Governor Green, Mayor Kelly, Lieut. Arthur G. Ford, Division chaplain. There were about 1200 guests. Ben Bernie entertained for the soldiers.

There will be a meeting of the 33rd Div. of Women's club at 2 p. m., Friday afternoon at the village hall, Nov. 14. All members and friends interested in boys at camp are invited. Plans will be made at this meeting for the preparation for the holiday boxes.

Autos and "Ought-to's"

by C. W. LUSSMAN of Sieburg Pharmacy

Every automobile owner knows he ought to have his car checked and properly lubricated for winter driving — and most of them do so.

It is infinitely more important that those owners, and their passengers have a physical check up, which many do. They go to a physician for a thorough medical examination. Others ought to.

You ought to because your blood tends to become thinner as the winter becomes colder, thereby lowering physical resistance to disease.

You ought to know what changes in diet, if any, are needed. What condition your respiratory tract, wherein so many winter ills are located, indicates.

The answers, along with much other sound and valuable advice, are available to you if you will consult your physician.

His prescriptions when compounded by a careful druggist will remove the cause of the ailments for which they were written.

It Happened Here

The picture of the prize winner a recent morning paper, bro't to in a corn husking contest shown in mind the opening chapters of an old book, "The Circuit Rider," by Edward Eggleston; an old book, perhaps no longer read now but once a great favorite with a family of corn huskers; it was read aloud on long winter evenings, enjoyed and discussed while Father in his red rocker, toasting his feet and peeling an apple, chuckled over the homely scenes of which he had been a part. He knew the customs and the people which Eggleston described and he recognized Col. Lumsden, Little Kike, Jake Snigger, Brady, the Irish school teacher and old man Goodwin as old friends. There used to be husking pins in the box on the kitchen shelf and worn out finger stalls of ticking with long strings of drilling; making finger stalls for their men in the fields was the chore of many a S'mantha Allen or Betty Harshart. Corn husking is not the sport of kings nor of millionaires but there is a certain tang to the nip of the husking pin into the dry husks and the rattle of the ears against the high side board of the wagon box. The prize winning husker in the paper is husking standing corn and we wish the photographer could have included Vick and Flossy, the sober farm team and the wagon with the high side boards to catch the flying ears. . . . The storm of Halloween night, following days of rainfall, undermined the large cottonwood that stood by the vacant lot playground; it had already had its death wound by W.P.A. girdling and it fell across the street with a crushing weight that would have spelled disaster to anything directly under it; with its spiky, upthrust branches it was a threatening barrier and looked, in the steady morning drizzle, like some malicious Halloween prank. But no Big Black with shook our door last night, saying, "Tricks or treats?" If it had there'd have been a generous plate of cookies for it. S'Amuser.

Cleveland Person This Driver
The bus company has a rule against dogs. But "Angel," the Great Dane, wanted a ride home. He climbed aboard, sans his master, snifed at the fare box and stretched out in a rear seat meant for five persons. Driver A. L. Patterson and three other men tugged on his collar in vain. Patterson coaxed. Angel yawned. Patterson finally drove on, but the efficient driver wasn't whipped. A mile on his route he paused, spent a dime for hamburger. Angel followed Patterson and hamburger from the bus. With one swallow the meat was gone. So was Patterson and his bus.

Checkmaster plan gets hearty welcome at National bank

The introduction last week of the Checkmaster Plan as an additional checking account service by the Arlington Heights National Bank, was marked with pronounced success and great enthusiasm, according to H. H. Franzen, president.

The inauguration of the plan makes checking account facilities available to practically anyone inasmuch as no minimum balance is required in this new department. The depositor pays just 5c for each check drawn and each item deposited. This fee is charged only as the account is used. Checkbooks are free, with no advance payments of any kind. "We were confident," says a statement from Mr. Franzen, "that the public would welcome the opportunity of enjoying banking facilities which heretofore been considered the prerogative of the well-to-do. Because depositors in this new 'white collar' plan of banking control what their service costs them, Checkmaster wins widespread acceptance from the outset."

"We were also pleased to note that our first depositors in the Checkmaster plan were a representative cross-section of the community — wage-earners and salaried men and women generally, housewives, lawyers and other professional men, state and city employees, mechanics, teachers, etc."

It is pointed out that despite the fact that a checking account may now be opened with an initial deposit of any amount, even as little as one dollar, the opening amounts were in many instances fairly substantial. It is again emphasized that Checkmaster is in addition to existing checking account facilities at the Arlington Heights National Bank.

NOTICE FOR BIDS

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the President and Board of Trustees of the Village of Arlington Heights, Ill., will receive sealed bids until 8:00 o'clock P. M., Monday, November 17, 1941, for pulling the pump at the well at Chestnut Avenue and Hawthorne Street in said Village and the bucketting of such well for the purpose of determining cave-ins or other obstructions that may be in such well. Such bid shall be itemized. Such bids will be publicly opened at a meeting of the President and Board of Trustees of said Village to be held in the Village Hall at said time. The Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

The judge should remember that pedestrians on country highways are a rarity, so naturally the number killed is smaller. I am quite sure that walking on city streets, dangerous though it be, is safer than walking on the highways.

Public schools to hold open house for parents, friends

The Arlington Heights public elementary schools will hold open house Thursday evening, November 13, from 7:30 to 10:00. This being National Education Week from November 10 to 14, the attention of the American people is focused upon our schools. Open house provides an opportunity for parents and those interested in the schools to visit the buildings, meet the teachers and room mothers, and get an idea from the display of regular work as to what students do from 9:00 to 3:30 each school day.

Ladies aid of St. John's church plans turkey dinner

The Ladies' Aid Society of the St. John's Evangelical church are planning to give a turkey dinner on November 27. With the thought in mind that many families might like to celebrate the real Thanksgiving, the Aid Society chose this date, November 27.

The turkey dinner will be served family style with service starting at 5 p. m. in the St. John's church dining room. Tickets are 75c each for adults and 35c for children under twelve.

Tickets may be purchased from any member of the society or by calling Mrs. Wm. Lauterburg, tel. 265-M or Rev. Kampfenkel, tel. 215-M.

Julia Kolpin given shower surprise

Thirty guests attended the miscellaneous bridal shower Wednesday evening, November 5, at the Albert Oehrling home on Wheeling rd., given by Marjorie Oehrling in the honor of Miss Julia Kolpin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kolpin of Elk Grove.

Julia received many beautiful gifts. They were placed in the dining room under a charming umbrella made of green and white crepe paper, with streamers reaching the floor.

Games were played in the basement which was decorated. Tasty refreshments were served.

Another member of Paddock clan arrives in San Francisco

Stuart Roy Paddock arrived the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Paddock, San Francisco, Nov. 2, according to announcements received by Paddock Publications. The editor of the Herald has not received any of the details but it is certain that with the third repetition of Stuart R. Paddock, in the Paddock clan he will either be a newspaper man or perhaps a college professor, taking after his other uncle, Roy Nichols, from whom dad and mother have apparently chosen the middle name.

Good luck, anyway, Stuart. Printer's ink is not the worst thing to have in your blood.

We failed to mention that the dad of the youngster is with the San Francisco Examiner, so that possible college professorship is completely out.

MT. PROSPECT

Mrs. Florence Brown of Ames, Iowa, has been visiting her son and his family, the A. Mason Browns.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Ragland have returned from a combined pleasure and business trip to Atlanta, Ga. They visited with friends in both Nashville, Tennessee and Indianapolis, Ind.

The new son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Glave has been named Richard Joseph. He and his mother will be home from the hospital on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Smith are the proud parents of a daughter, Melissa May, born on Thursday, Nov. 6, at Women and Children hospital.

Miss Marian Adams and Miss Sue Weidner rode the "400" to Milwaukee last Wednesday afternoon. That evening they returned to Chicago on the south bound "400."

Miss Elaine Dombrowsky of Palatine and Mr. Casmer Misawic of Mt. Prospect were married last Saturday, Nov. 8. The reception which followed the wedding service was held at Rob Roy Country club and was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cole, the Walter Scharinghausens and the William Freers of Mt. Prospect.

Mrs. Charles Angell and Mrs. Allan Ackley entertained their P. E. O. chapter at luncheon on Tuesday, Nov. 11. A program for the twelve guests followed the luncheon.

Several of our local men have been pleasant hunting this week. Some of them are H. S. Jacobs, William Flesch, Emmett Worley, Joseph Staudembaur and his son, Joseph, Russell New and E. A. Glaeser.

George Dresser returned to Camp Polk, La. on Monday and Herbert Froemling on Wednesday.

Fred Mosiman, who is stationed at Camp Grant in Rockford, spent last week-end in Mt. Prospect.

Remember the P.T.A. square dance on Saturday, Nov. 15. Come and have a good time.

Roy Haas, son of the Herman Haas, Sr., was recently honorably discharged from Camp Roberts in California. He returned to Mt. Prospect last Friday night and his friends and relatives were present at his home to welcome him.

On Saturday, Nov. 15, the Camp Fire girls of Mt. Prospect will plant new trees in the triangular plot of ground at Evergreen and Main st. The ceremony, to which their fathers are invited, will take place at 2:30 p. m. Following this, refreshments will be served at the Fellowship room of the South church.

Red Cross Sewing will be held in the South church on Monday, Nov. 17. Two new pins were awarded to Mt. Prospect women for completing a hundred and forty-four hours of work, to Mrs. Arvid Carlson and Mrs. Lillian Hartman. The Red Cross drive has started and will continue through the month of November. Junior Red Cross will handle the drive in our local schools.

A large group of parents, friends and interested men and women of Prospect Heights were present at the investiture service performed by Troop 23 of Mt. Prospect for the new Prospect Heights Troop 36. Mr. Donald Kyger of the Northwest Suburban Council was present, as was Mr. James Wax, troop committee man and Mr. Carl Biers, assistant scoutmaster of Mt. Prospect Troop 23 welcomes this neighboring troop and hopes that they will have many good times together. Part of the evening program was a First Aid demonstration ably put on by Troop 23.

Called to Quincy by death of sister

Our sympathy is extended to Mrs. Arvid Carlson, whose sister, Mrs. Leonard Ripper (nee Margaret Moore) passed away in Quincy, Ill., on Sunday, Nov. 9. Some years ago Mrs. Ripper made her home here in Mt. Prospect with Mrs. Carlson. She is survived by her husband, her two year old son, her three sisters and her mother. Mrs. Carlson, with Arvid and Charles, are in Quincy now and have been there since last Friday.

Our sympathy is also extended to Mrs. Julius G. Huppert and Jack of 222 Albert st. Around the first of November Mrs. Huppert, her son, Jack, and her late husband, moved from Chicago to their new home in Mt. Prospect. The following Saturday Mr. Huppert was injured in an automobile accident and passed away on Monday, Nov. 10. The funeral services will be held on Thursday in Chicago.

Sorority showers
Emily Toppensteadt;
to be married Nov. 22

Miss Elaine Landmeier entertained the girls of the Sigma Lambda Mu at her home in Elk Grove Sunday afternoon in honor of the approaching marriage of Miss Emily Toppensteadt of Itasca, who will become the bride of Gilbert E. Longfield of River Grove, November 22 at St. Luke's Lutheran church in Itasca.

Many very lovely personal gifts were presented to the bride-to-be. Luncheon was served in the large dining room, which was decorated in white and green for the occasion.

Warren Carlson
attends inspection
tour with engineers

Warren Carlson, a senior in the school of engineering at Ames, Iowa, spent last week in Chicago with 283 other senior engineers from Ames. The young men were here on the annual inspection trip planned by that University for senior engineers. Among plants visited were Carnegie Steel Mills, Western Electric and others. The boys also spent two days inspecting plants in Milwaukee.

Warren and two fraternity brothers, Carl Schneider and Charles Smith, all members of Delta Epsilon, were dinner guests at the home of Warren's parents, the Nathaniel Carlsons on Wednesday evening. The boys stayed in the Congress hotel while in Chicago. Warren has received a high honor at Ames with his recent election to the Scabbard and Blade, the highest National Military Fraternity. Only twelve boys on the Ames campus were awarded this honor this year.

Ideal club to sponsor
bakery sale

The ideal club of the St. James church are sponsoring a bakery goods sale at the St. James fall festival, which will be held on Nov. 14, 15, and 16 in the school and will have a bakery goods booth on all nights of the festival. The committee in charge is asking all Catholic women who plan to give cakes for the dinner on Sunday evening to purchase their cakes from the ideal club booth.

All other organizations of the parish are cooperating in making this festival a success and booths of all kinds will be ready to serve those who attend.

The women of the parish are serving a roast beef dinner on Sunday afternoon, with service starting at 4 p. m. Tickets are 50c for adults and 35c for children under twelve.

The festival will open at 8 p. m. on Friday and Saturday evenings, and at 3 p. m. on Sunday afternoon.

Club calendar

Thrift Shop open each Saturday from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m. in the Methodist church.

Nov. 14-16—St. James Fall Festival in school hall.

Nov. 27—Turkey dinner, St. John's church.

Winifred McElhose
is showered

Miss Winifred McElhose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward McElhose of North State rd., was guest of honor at a pre-nuptial party on Monday evening in Palatine when Mrs. Evelyn Wittenberg and Mrs. Gloria Wittenberg were hostesses to a group of friends of the bride-to-be. Miss McElhose will become the bride of Edward Wittenberg on Thanksgiving day in the home of her parents.

Ruth Wenzel
honored

Mrs. Richard Mundt and Miss Ethel Mundt of Mt. Prospect were hostesses to twenty friends of Miss Ruth Wenzel of Arlington Heights on Friday evening at a luncheon in honor of her approaching marriage to Charles Pingel.

Following the social evening the hostesses served a buffet supper at an attractively decorated table, where a bowl of white asters and tall white candles in silver holders served as a background for a miniature bridal party.

Miss Wenzel will become the bride of Marvin Pingel of Mansville, Ohio, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pingel of the village, on Thanksgiving evening in the St. John's Evangelical church.

Woman's club to hear of Wishmakers house

The Wishmakers home, that popular group of furnished rooms in Carson Pirie Scott and Co. will be the topic for discussion at the meeting of the Arlington Heights Woman's club on next Wednesday afternoon.

The woman in charge of these rooms at Carson's will be present at that time to tell of the charming rooms furnished in Regency and 18th century furniture. She will bring with her color samples and material samples for draperies, curtains and slip covering, and will give the club members many helpful suggestions on interior decorating. She will also tell of the modern rooms which are proving very popular at Carson's. Many clubs who have had this program have had requests for the return of the speaker, and all club members interested in interior decorating will not want to miss this program.

High school to give fall festival

The annual fall festival of the local high school will be presented to the public on Saturday evening, November 27, at 8 p. m., in the high school auditorium. The chorus of one hundred and forty seven voices will be directed by Mrs. C. O. Wintersteen; the dramatic club one act plays by Miss Kral and the concert band and twirlers by Mr. D. G. Costain. Vocal solos and small instrumental ensembles, plus special drills by the baton twirlers will add to the interest of the entertaining program.

Pledges sorority

Frances Schneberger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Schneberger, 516 Euclid ave., is a pledge of Alpha Delta Pi sorority at Lawrence college, Appleton, Wisconsin.

Red Cross drive
now under way

The Red Cross drive committee workers to the number of 90, met on Monday evening in the village hall to receive their final instructions for the drive which got under way on Tuesday morning.

The drive will continue until after Thanksgiving, and all patriotic and civic minded citizens will stand ready with their contribution when the official representative calls.

The work of the Red Cross is of such scope and worth that all should give it their utmost support, states the Red Cross committee.

The Red Cross today has a two-fold task: To aid the morale of armed forces and to safeguard the lives and health of the civilian population.

Nights are 20 hours long in Iceland and Army morale officers on duty there, have asked the Red Cross for recreational equipment to aid the soldiers to while away the long evenings.

Radios, phonographs and records, basketball, volley ball and table tennis equipment, punching bags, chess and checker equipment are being sent, as well as instructions for craft hobbies which will utilize waste material.

Another worthy work of the Red Cross is the project started last February to provide the Army and Navy with a National defense blood plasma bank. It was begun in seven Eastern cities. Today the project has been extended to key chapters in the middle west and on the Pacific coast in an effort to fill a request from the Army and Navy for 100,000 donations each.

Blood donations are processed down to plasma and dried, then delivered to the Army and Navy in hermetically sealed flasks. Laboratories undertaking processing are doing so on a non-profit basis.

Mothers club of

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heiss were hosts to Rev. and Mrs. Wondracke and family for dinner on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Tagtmeier are parents of a baby boy born October 31 in the St. Joseph's hospital in Elgin. Mrs. Tagtmeier was formerly Viola Niemeyer.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Hines and family spent Sunday in Rockford visiting relatives.

Mr. Hines left on Monday afternoon for Schenectady, New York, on business.

Rev. Jordan of Park Ridge to speak to P-TA

Rev. Orvis Jordan, pastor of the Park Ridge Community church, and well known book reviewer will be the next speaker of the Arlington Heights Parent-Teacher association, which will meet on Tuesday evening, November 18.

Rev. Jordan, who has been pastor of the Community church of Park Ridge for the past 20 years, has also held long and successful pastorates in Rockford and Evanston.

Rev. Jordan has also done much writing, having written more than 2,000,000 words for various journals, and for ten years did editorial writing for the Christian Century.

Rev. Jordan comes well prepared to talk of the subject "Reading in the Home" for he is an ardent reader himself, and has been giving book talks and reviews for the past ten years. He is president of the Park Ridge Library board, and while in Evanston served on the Evanston library board.

The meeting will open at 8 p. m. in the North side school, and is well worth the attendance of parents and friends of the association. Mrs. Paszotta will render piano selections also.

Shirley Zoellner was taken ill and rushed to a Chicago hospital, Saturday.

Friendly class celebrates
15th anniversary

The Friendly class of the Presbyterian church celebrated its 15th anniversary by presenting a candlelight ceremony at the evening service last Sunday.

The choir composed of members of the Friendly class, under the able direction of Mr. D. G. Costain rendered two numbers: "I Heard a Forest Pray" by Peter DeRose, and "Praise Ye the Father" by Charles Gounod.

The class history prepared by Mrs. Rex Volz was read by Mrs. Marion Grigsby. Mrs. D. Van Luik presented two lovely numbers on the violin.

The highlight of the evening was the presentation of the past presidents of the Friendly Class, each lighting a candle in response to her name and receiving a corsage.

After the services were over, dainty sandwiches, cakes and coffee were served.

OBITUARIES

Lawrence D. Norton
Mr. Lawrence D. Norton of 310 West Fremont st., Arlington Heights passed away at the Arlington Rest Home Sunday morning, Nov. 9, at the age of 78 years, 2 months and 4 days. Mr. Norton has made his home in Arlington Heights since April, 1926, with his friend and companion, Mr. John C. Hoffacker. He leaves to mourn his departure a sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sleight of Reading, Mass., and a nephew, Mr. John Norton Sleight of Reading, Mass.

Amanda Forke
Mrs. Amanda Forke nee Pollock, beloved wife of William Forke of Addison township, passed away at her residence on Wood Dale rd. near Lawrence ave. Thursday evening, Nov. 6, at the age of 65 years 4 months and no days.

She was born July 6, 1876 in Addison township, where she received her education and spent her childhood days. On October 21, 1894 she was united in marriage to William Forke, by Rev. Grosse at the Lutheran church at Churchville. This couple have always made their home in the vicinity of their present location.

Mrs. Forke was also a very loyal member of St. Luke's Lutheran ladies aid at Itasca.

She leaves to mourn her departure, her loving husband William Forke and three children, Elmer Forke of Addison township, Clemens Forke at home, Miss Adeline Forke at home; one daughter-in-law; one sister, Mrs. George Forke; one brother, Mr. Fred Pollock; and many other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were Monday afternoon, November 10, at 1:30 p. m. at her residence and at 2:00 p. m. at the Itasca Lutheran church, interment was in St. Luke's Lutheran cemetery at Itasca.

IN MEMORIAM

In fond memory of our loved one, Augusta Naske, who passed away two years ago, November 15.

Just two years ago today God called you and you went away; We know there will never be another

To take the place of you, our mother, The voice is mute and stilled the heart

That loved us well and true, Ah, bitter was the trial part From one so good as you, We miss you now, our hearts are sore.

As time goes by, we miss you now; Your loving smile, your gentle face, No one can fill your vacant place.

Husband, Children and Grandchildren.

Albert L. Rand
Funeral services for Albert L. Rand, who passed away Sunday night after a short illness at his home, 1034 Margaret st., Des Plaines, were held at the Oehler Home for Funerals Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. His death came as a shock to his many friends as it had not been known that he was seriously ill. Besides his wife, Helen (nee Purves) he leaves three sons, Donald, Robert and Douglas to survive him.

Mrs. Ella Knopf
Funeral services for Mrs. Ella Knopf, 67, will be held Thursday afternoon at Half Day. She passed away after a month's illness Tuesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Horcher, Wheeling. Deceased was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Volz. Following her marriage she lived on a farm near Long Grove. Mr. Knopf died early in this century, since which time she made her home with her brother, George Volz, at Aptakisic until two years ago when she moved to Arlington Heights.

Mrs. Knopf leaves two brothers, George, Aptakisic and Ed, Arlington Heights; two sisters, Mrs. Carrie Harth, Arlington Heights and Mrs. Mary Stahl, Prairie View; two brothers, Mrs. Frank Horcher and Mrs. Irwin Rehm.

William Roaska

William Roaska, of Barrington, aged 85, died in the Lake County General hospital in Waukegan Tuesday after a long illness.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our most sincere thanks in gratitude for the kindness and sympathy for all the folks in our recent sorrow which will always remain a precious memory.

A visitor talks straight from the shoulder

Editor's Note:

Two months ago a man who had spent several weeks in Palatine visiting a relative, called on the editor and offered to tell why so many Palatine people go elsewhere to trade. The visitor has evidence of being very much wrought up. Naturally the editor made him no promises but said that he would be glad to receive the letter. The thought of the editor was to make a private printing of the "expose" for circulation among business men only.

This week, the letter arrived. The editor has read it over twice. He thinks that it is "good medicine" for all Palatine citizens. If you do not like bad tasting medicine do not read any further.

Here is the remedy suggested by the stranger who spent his summer in Palatine and will spend his winter on the west coast. Everybody's Business

It is sometimes said that what is everybody's business is nobody's business, but this time a rank outsider is going to make everybody's business his own personal concern. Living in Palatine a part of the time as he does, the town becomes his while he is in it and he wants to see it become as good a town as it can possibly be made.

A neighborhood becomes a community only by everybody's taking an active interest in all its affairs, viz. by cooperation in meeting community needs. That is what has resulted in our churches, our schools, our P.T.A., our Woman's club, our Lions Club, our library and all of the other institutions which help to make our neighborhood a community. The latest contribution to the community good is the new Catholic church in which the writer, through a Protestant, takes an intense delight because it is meeting the religious needs of a particular group and because it will increase the total religious life of the village. Closer cooperation between all of these community institutions would further increase the effectiveness and richness of our community life.

But when it comes to business, the ruling principle of the village seems to be everybody for himself and the Devil take the hindmost. And the Devil is having plenty of it to do. Competition is ap-

MAN and the MACHINE

How shall man master the machine he has created? This is the most formidable problem that peace will bring to the world. How shall the forces of evil that threaten the existence of civilization be kept in check? How shall genius be harnessed to a constructive, humane program?

In the meantime all Americans must stand guard over the precious heritage of liberty bequeathed to us by the pioneer patriots who fought to make the New World free.

We employ modern mortuary facilities to make every service, regardless of its price, an appropriate expression of the family's love and respect.

Probably no screen character has achieved so great a nationwide popularity as that of "Maise" the wisecracking showgirl portrayed by Ann Sothern in M-G-M's amusing series. Maise's latest adventures take place on the Palatine screen in "Ringside Maise", in which our heroine becomes involved with a prizefighter and his hardboiled manager. George Murphy plays the manager, and Robert Sterling the fighter, and between the two Maise finds herself in a string of as hilarious and entertaining experiences as she has ever undergone. "Flying Blind" is the second feature and deals with action in the sky—Sunday through Tuesday.

parently accepted as being the life of trade, but this is an absolute falsehood. Business is nothing more or less than an engineering problem in meeting neighborhood economic needs. Intelligent business planning, through a Chamber of Commerce or Business Men's Association, could remake the business life of our village for the better within a year.

Such planning would suggest, for instance, that specialization, through an increased number of stores, would result in more business and more orderly business than for every merchant to carry everything from pins to elephants. A grocery store ought to be a grocery store, a hardware store should be a hardware store, a dime store should be a dime store and a customer should be able to tell which one he is in when he enters. Community business would be helped, for instance, by the establishment of a watch repair and small jewelry shop, thus giving an added service to the community and also relieving other lines of trade of items which do not fit in with their primary lines of merchandise. One large, palatially-equipped barber shop, with all of the present barbers working cooperatively in it, would save overhead costs of rent and heating, would give all present customers a better service and would also draw patronage from miles around.

It ought to be obvious that any real community should reap the profit of its own business needs. Palatine is losing business every day, as everybody knows, because it is not prepared to furnish what its people want. Every merchant is afraid to stock up, fearing he will be left holding the bag. Meanwhile, just ten miles away is the best shopping center in the north suburbs (outside of Evanston) and there are also smaller communities nearer by which are living off of Palatine trade. Better business planning would keep this trade at home and would also save time, trouble and gasoline for people who would much rather trade at home if only they could get what they want. The new cold storage lockers at the Sanitary Market are a step in the right direction, furnishing a much-needed service to the community and keeping just that much business at home.

The whole community is benefit-

Elms hospital serves many communities

The Elmhurst Community hospital has just completed its fifteenth year of service to the citizens of Elmhurst and the surrounding communities. Since its opening in 1926, 33,486 bed patients and a much larger number of out-patients have been served by the hospital.

One hundred thirteen bed patients were cared for in the hospital on its birthday—a more or less representative day for the hospital. In addition, numerous out-patients received the services of the X-ray, laboratory and emergency service departments.

A staff of nurses, internes, X-ray technicians, roentgenologists, laboratory technicians, pathologists, anaesthetists, surgical nurses, dieticians and a large number of non-professional workers in the office, kitchens, maintenance and housekeeping department provide the best of service for patients.

At the time of its dedication, fifteen years ago, the hospital consisted only of the main building, which housed not only patients but also the nursing staff. Today the ped with the finest machines for

Des Plaines considers power to zone board

The granting of additional powers to the Des Plaines zoning board is being considered by the city fathers in an attempt to make the board something that will be listened to by all business men. Heretofore much red tape has hampered the action of the board and one reason for the proposed ordinance is to rid the board of that tape.

Latest action in the zoning story of Des Plaines is a petition presented by six beauty operators located in the business district asking investigation of all beauty shops being conducted in private homes. It is expected that there are about a dozen such establishments.

The board is investigating the matter as regards state and city business licenses and the zoning restrictions in the territory occupied by these "home beautifiers." Mayor Garland stated that this action is being directed at future establishments of this kind rather than the present businesses that have been operating peaceably for some time.

Wheeling sausage store again hit

The Bautrup sausage store at the junction of Dundee and McHenry rds. was again hit Saturday night by a motorist who failed to note the end of McHenry rd. The store is situated at the end of McHenry rd. and has been struck several times before. Mr. Bautrup, owner, had the building moved back to escape the "traffic" but all to no avail.

Damage to the store was estimated at $2,000 while injuries to the driver of the car, Paul Costello of Chicago, amounted to hospitalization.

Des Plaines resident injured in Rand collision

The bright lights of an approaching auto last week Wednesday caused Arthur Weizne of Des Plaines, to run onto the shoulder of Rand rd. near State rd. and then return to the pavement, striking another auto.

Weizne was driving south on Rand rd. with his wife when he became blinded by the lights of another car and lost control of his car. He swerved to the shoulder, struck a mailbox and then moved across the pavement, colliding with a car driven by Alvin Walukones of Camp Custer, Mich.

Walukones and his wife were both taken to the Northwestern hospital where the latter was found to have suffered numerous cuts about the face. Weizne was also under treatment for chest and knee injuries.

Wills Filed BARRINGTON

John C. Hayes, Jr., brother to the Rev. Philip J. Hayes, of Barrington, died in Chicago Thursday. He was 56 years old and leaves four children, his parents and five brothers. His funeral was held on Monday.

LAKE ZURICH

The will of Henry Steil, who died in Lake Zurich Oct. 25, has been admitted to probate at Waukegan. His estate is estimated worth $25,760. It is left to his two daughters, Mrs. Clara Buhr and Mrs. Lilian Wickersheim, both of Lake Zurich. William F. Buhr was named executor.

PALATINE

Probate Clerk Frank Lyman reports that the will of William H. Kastning who died in Palatine August 18, has been admitted to probate. It disposes of an estate estimated to be worth around $15,300. It is all left to his wife, Mrs. Anna Kastning, of Palatine. She was also named to be the executor of the will.

THREE INJURED IN OAKTON, RTE. 45 CRASH

Show on the stop sign at the junction of rte. 45 and Oakton sts., Friday evening caused a Lombard driver to miss the sign and strike another auto, injuring three of the occupants.

Peter Woode of Lombard was driving east on Oakton when he drove through the sign and collided with George Hogan of Berwyn. Riding with Hogan was his wife, who suffered an eye cut, a son, Norbert, who received head cuts, leg bruises and several broken teeth, and Mrs. B. Froelich of Lake Zurich. The latter received numerous bruises and a possible skull fracture. All were treated at the Northwestern hospital in Des Plaines.

TAX SUPPORTED LIBRARY WINS IN SKOKIE VILLAGE

A tax supported library was o. k'd by the citizens of Skokie last week Tuesday when the voters turned in more than a two to one majority. Amount of the levy will be up to one and two-tenths mills.

In the past the library has been given free rental in the municipal building and donations from the village. Due to the increase of municipal activity the present library quarters are required by the village for other purposes. The library will be forced to move to new quarters, entailing rental and other costs.

News items for this department should be mailed not later than Monday to Arlene Nagel, publicity chairman, 804 N. Douglas St., Arlington Heights.

November 14—Last Tuesday at the zone board meeting it was decided that since no more tickets were available for the November 15 opera, an attempt should be made to procure tickets for the opera either on the 22nd or 29th. To date sufficient information has not been given so we don't know which night it will be. Then, too, there is a possibility of substituting a symphony or stage play for the opera. More definite information later. You may call me if you like.

Congratulations to Loraine Pohlman of Schaumburg who celebrated her birthday November 8. Wonder how many candles she needed? The Christian Knowledge chairman is sending a questionnaire to each society Knowledge chairman. If you have charge of this department, kindly see to it that Lilah Mensching has yours as soon as possible. If not, you take it upon yourself to encourage your chairman to do his duty?

Everyone will be disappointed with this announcement. There will be no Christmas cantata sponsored by the zone as had been planned.

LIFE WITH MOTHER

November 5, 1941

Dear Eleanor:

Macduff and I have just returned to the house after a one-third of a mile walk for the mail. How would you like to go that distant every day? Well, I'll admit, I don't always walk. I generally pick up the mail as I drive past on my way from school with the children. I try to copy the carrier and drive as close to the box as I can; stop about, and without getting out, obtain the mail as far as possible. Sometimes, I don't make it and have to get out and walk around. Once, I over drove my mark and tipped the neighbor's box and stand. I looked sheepishly around, but seeing no one, pushed the post back in place and quickly drove on.

Mac loves these walks around the place. Like us, he loves everything about the farm. Particularly, the new freedom and unlike us, the field mice. Edward and I watched him hide some bones the other day. Each one was carried carefully and buried at the four corners. Edward wanted to know if Mac would remember where he put them when he was hungry and low in great numbers these days and Mac's short legs tear after them. He can't hope to catch one, but he's having a wonderful time just thinking he might. He's "leading a dog's life" for the first time in his pedigreed existence... and liking it.

"No Hunting... Wild Life on This Farm," so reads the Izaak

Wheat Ridge Seals chairman to Loraine Pohlman in Schaumburg.

So many of our Leaguers have shown such an interest in bowling that besides the regular fellows teams, open bowling for girls has been attempted. Des Plaines invited the Arlington girls several Sundays ago and really enjoyed themselves immensely. Now they want other societies to join their bowling parties in inviting to a bowling party. If of interest is shown, it may be decided to include the boys for some mixed bowling.

Walton League sign at the end of our road. I can certainly testify to the truth of the latter statement. If you could look in on us some morning here at Hill Top, when we're getting ready for the day's activities, you'd agree that we are indeed a wild bunch.

Like most farm houses, our kitchen is the meeting place for the family. Ma is preparing the breakfast; Pa is shaving at the sink; Bob is bringing fresh water from the well house; Jack's carrying in the wood and coal he forgot to bring in the evening before; George is completing his dressing before the range; Ed is calling for someone to help him into the high chair and Mac is barking his joyous morning greeting to all of us. (It seems the more noise we make the better he likes us).

Finally, we all sit down to breakfast. But, we aren't calm and collected, even for that short period. There's always the discussion about the clocks. We wonder which one is fast and which is slow. Nearly always we discover that the electric clock stopped around eight. But, that was the night before! Someone remembers he accidentally pulled the electric cord and forgot to replace it. Then, one of us rushes to the radio for the correct time, but we wait, for what seems like hours, for the announcement. When it comes, Bob discovers he has only fifteen minutes to drive his father to the 8:04 train, park his car and be in his class room (Continued on page 2)

Only two living who attended party of Elk Grove folks, long ago

Only two of those who attended a party held in Itasca in February, 1876, are alive today. They are A. G. Chessman, at whose home the event was held and Mrs. Nellie Best, of Arlington Heights, whose name at that time was Nellie Noyce.

A pleasant reunion was held on Friday evening at the residence of A. G. Chessman, Esq. The young people enjoyed themselves heartily, and the older ones were not a whit behind in their share of the fun. The following were present: Messrs. C. Thurbur, D. McNab, G. Page, Misses Nellie Skinner, Stella Whiting, Mona Whiting and Nellie Noyce, of Arlington Heights; Messrs. R. Skinner and Whiting, and Miss Cherry, of Elk Grove; Messrs. W. Hills and M. Diebert, of Bloomingdale; Mr. Lester, of Salt Creek; the Misses Flood of Chicago; Messrs. Slanker, Allen, Lake, and Lawrence, and Misses Eddy, Lake, Allen, and Chessman, of Itasca.

Palatine business firms in 1974

Palatine did not have an individual newspaper until 1878, but the Herald served many towns along the Northwestern railroad, from Jefferson Park to Barrington. William Holton were the owners, the former acting as editor-in-chief and the latter as local editor.

The Palatine office was in the Masonic building, now occupied by Sanford tavern. Prominent advertisers in the issue of Oct. 29, 1874 were:

F. J. Filbert, druggs.
H. Schirring & Co., dry goods.
E. W. Harris, bakery and restaurant.
E. Prellberg, merchant tailor.
S. Marsh, jeweler.
D. T. Day, boot and shoemaker.
Louis Hartung, Slade street mkt.
J. Chapman, harnessmaker.
Luerssen & Schuit, wagon and carriage shop.
Dr. John Zahn.
Dr. F. R. Megler.
L. P. Carl, ice cream parlor.
John Allard, veterinary.

Des Plaines man to seek state educational office

Hugh P. Harshbarger, 579 Arlington ave., Des Plaines, director of department of practical arts at Maine high school, has announced that he will seek the candidacy for State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Mr. Harshbarger, it is understood, has the backing of some very influential leaders in education in the state as well as many others in various professions and business and has been urged to seek the office by men from every section of the state.

REASON FOR PRESENT PAPER SHORTAGE

We are all asked many times a day what has caused this tremendous shortage in paper. The following is quoted from a speech made by Bob Ziegler, Assistant Secretary of the National Paper Trade Association, and who now represents the paper industry in the O. P. M. in Washington:

"Steel plants use Paper for the purpose of interleaving armor plate and cold rolled steel to the extent of some 60,000 tons (or 3,000 carloads) per year. One point of embarkation for our troop movements required within a very short period of time 1,000,000 pounds of waterproofed Kraft Paper to be shipped immediately for the purpose of wrapping supplies. It might be interesting to also give at this time certain pertinent figures with regard to Paper requirements under the Defense Program which we believe will give you a better idea as to the colossal size of this program. Let us itemize for you certain of these requirements as follows:

TODAY, THE REQUIREMENT HAS BEEN FOR:

- 7,500 tons (or 375 carloads) of mimeograph paper;
  - 2,500 tons (or 125 carloads) of typewriter paper;
  - 2,000,000 rolls of Toilet Paper for each Army camp;
  - 50,000,000 file folders;
  - 3,750,000 sheets of carbon paper;
  - 1,000,000 paper milk bottles per day (at the present time) to each Army camp;
  - 30,000,000 Defense Stamp albums;
  - 100,100,000 pounds of Super Book Paper;
  - 100,000 pounds of Cover paper for soldiers' hand books.
- THIS AMOUNT OF HAND BOOKS IF STACKED WOULD BE:
- Sixteen times as high as the Washington Monument;
  - 4,000,000 sheets of Poster Paper for the "Minute Men" National Defense Posters;
  - 11,000 tons (or 550 carloads) of Target Paper;
  - 14,000 pounds of asbestos paper for each cruiser manufactured, of which 64 are now being built;
  - 11,000 tons per month of board for shell containers;
  - 1,250,000,000 envelopes will be required this year by the Government.
- It is interesting to note that it requires 30,000 pounds (or 1 carload) of blue print paper for each battleship constructed.

These figures, enormous as they may seem, give you some idea as to the tremendous demand being made upon the Paper Industry under our National Defence Program. Bear in mind, however, that this is only a portion of the paper, as the greater amount of paper required for the program is going direct to the contractors under the National Defence Program. In fact, it has been estimated that it required 1,000,000 tons of paper for each $5,000,000,000 of Defense appropriation. On the basis of recent Defense figures of $63,000,000,000 you can readily see where 12,600,000 tons may be directly affected by the Defense Program.

On alleys 1 and 2 Lauterburg & Oehlers took all three games from the Arlington Elevators. The undertakers are now tied for first place with Vail Tavern. Otto Krause led the winner's attack with a 583 series. Otto also won the $1.00 on a 227 game. Alex Askelof was high for the coal heavers with 536.

On 3 and 4 Hamm's Beer won two games from Hartmann's Shoes. The Hamm's team had 1004 the last game, nice shootin' boys. Wally Kirchhoff led Hartmann's team with a nice 612 series. Wally also won the $1.00 on a 238 game. Nice shootin' Wally. Leo Jacks led the Hamm's team with 570. Cobby Winkelman wasn't far behind Leo with 569, one pin less.

On 5 and 6 Gaare's Studebakers took all three games from the league leading Vail Tavern team. Carl Huber led Gaare's attack with 590. George Harris was high for Vail with 546. Herb Hammerl won the $1.00 on a 224 game.

News of Prospect Heights

Congratulations

To Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Reinsma of Hillside ave. on the birth of a son, Saturday, Nov. 1, at Grand Rapids, Mich. Mother and son are expected home soon. The Reinsmas are the new owners of the former Kennedy home.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Luedke of 203 E. Willow rd., are the proud parents of a son born Saturday, Nov. 1.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Darfner, who celebrated their wedding anniversary on Sunday.

Locals

Mrs. Dan C. Robertson, Sr., entertained Mesdames Spillar, Miller and Ledyard at luncheon and pinocle on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wayne Bowman were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Gorbey of Evanston, Saturday evening and Edward Bowman enjoyed being an overnight guest of Bobby Gorbey.

Miss Sophie Zyla of Chicago was guest of honor at a surprise birthday party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Blaskiewicz, Saturday evening, Nov. 1. This was a double celebration as the announcement of the engagement of Miss Sophie Zyla and Mr. R. Blaskiewicz, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Blaskiewicz, was made at the party. The guests who congratulated the young couple, and had such a marvelous time were Mr. and Mrs. R. Bergman, Mr. and Mrs. P. Baber, Mr. and Mrs. G. Svoboda, Mr. and Mrs. J. Zyla and Mrs. Zyla's sister, Loretta, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Zyla, Pvt. Robert Feuerstein, Pvt. Edw. Blaskiewicz, Miss Mary Blaskiewicz, and of course Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Blaskiewicz. May we add our congratulations to the young people, too.

Mrs. Roy C. Bolt and Mrs. Roy A. Hartke attended their bridge club Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Thos. Conville, in Chicago.

P-T. A. news

Make your reservations with Mrs. Roy C. Bolt, if you are planning to attend the tour of the Chicago Lighting Institute November 18. Tickets are 25c.

The regular meeting of the Prospect Heights Parent-Teacher association was held at the school Monday, Nov. 10, at 2:00 p. m. The children of the upper grades put on an Achievement club meeting and sang several numbers under the direction of their teacher, Mrs. Mabel R. Fowler. Miss Kilberg, dietician for the hot school lunch programs, explained the methods and procedure employed by the hot school lunch program to the membership present. Mesdames Abbs, Barry, Burch, Buerher, Benzing, Ball, Bowman and Brownell, were our hostesses for the day and the table was appropriately decorated in red, white and blue by the hospitality committee.

The next regular meeting will be held Dec. 9 at 8:00 p. m. at the school house. The next executive board meeting will be held Nov. 25, 8:00 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Roy C. Bolt. This will be an important board meeting. All officers, chairmen of standing committees and the chairmen and members of the appointment committee and hot lunch investigating committee, are urged to attend.

Mr. H. Nelson returned to work Monday morning after a week's vacation, during which he had a real busy time painting his house.

Norman Olsen is enjoying a week's vacation at this time, and has had a grand time hunting pheasants all week, so far we have not heard whether Norman got the limit each day, but we surely hope he did.

Mrs. Anna P. Nelson attended her birthday club at the home of her cousin, Mrs. Christine Malmquist, Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Jennrich were greatly surprised last Wednesday evening when Eleanor's niece Virginia Duff, who had just been married at noon on that day, to Marilyn Schreiber, arrived and spent the night with the folks before continuing on to Wisconsin where they enjoyed the rest of their honeymoon hunting. Mrs. Lottie Duff, Eleanor's sister accompanied the folks up from Alton, Ill., and visited with the Jennrichs until the newlyweds returned at the week-end to take her back home with them.

Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Olson, Kenilworth were very much surprised when about 15 cars stopped at their home, and forty relatives and friends appeared all dressed in fancy costumes, symbol of Halloween. The Olsons had invited two couples out for the evening but the two couples went to one better and invited the others. The nice part of such a party was the fact that the folks brought along their own eats, and chairs and tables, and to say that every one had a grand time would be putting it mildly. Among those who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Alton Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Sankreith, Mr. and Mrs. Hank Loeb, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Loeb, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Kapellup, Mr. and Mrs. Rocco Schreibe, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Nozicka, Mr. and Mrs. Helmer Hilgesen, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marks, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Summers, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rehak, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. R. Loehen, Mr. and Mrs. William Schypolski, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Paulson, Mrs. Juanita Girard, and Miss Ruth Olson, all of Chicago.

Mrs. George Arnold, McDonald, road, enjoyed entertaining her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ed. Lafferty, of Champaign, all of last week.

Tuesday morning Mrs. E. B. Foxworthy was very excited about getting down to the railroad station in Chicago to meet her mother, Mrs. Peter Tanner, who is over 80 years old, and was traveling from her home in Wyoming all alone. Mrs. Foxworthy hopes to keep her mother with her, if not for the entire winter, then for a good few weeks. We hope Mrs. Tanner will enjoy her visit to Prospect Heights a great deal, and will decide to stay with the folks for the winter at least.

Mr. and Mrs. William Haney and son Billy, also Mrs. Donna Maxwell, drove up from Moline, Iowa, and enjoyed the week-end visiting Jim and Anne Nielsen. The Haney's returned home Sunday evening but Mrs. Maxwell is again at home with the Nielsens.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Daniels entertained the Fortnightly Pinocle club, Saturday evening, with Jim and Anne Nielsen, Mac and Betty McDonald attending. Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Dowling, enjoyed a delicious wild duck dinner with the friends Harry and "Dick" Steele Friday evening. Sunday evening the Steeles entertained Harry and Maude Williams. Congratulations to Mrs. Vi Danielson who celebrated her birthday Monday, November 10. Congratulations to Mrs. Marion Shepherd who celebrated her birthday the same day as her neighbor. Congratulations to Little Carol Hedemark who celebrated her fifth birthday last week.

Little Joanne Kertcher celebrated her sixth birthday, Wednesday, November 5, and Mrs. Kay Bolt celebrated her birthday Saturday, November 8th. Congratulations to all of these November birthday children.

Mr. Carleton A. Smith, of Smith & Dawson advises us that Prospect Heights has been approved by the government as a defense area, which means that the construction of homes of $6,000.00 and under is assured. Smith & Dawson also made application for permits to build 38 new homes at this time. Who said Prospect Heights is the fastest growing community anywhere?

The Achievement club of the Prospect Heights school is having a Family Fun Night on Friday, Nov. 14, from 8 to 10 p. m. at the Prospect Heights school.

Dr. Maier searches for means to stem world conflict tide

Describing war as "a calamitous visitation of God" even for the victor, Dr. Walter A. Maier of Concordia Seminary appealed in his coast-to-coast Lutheran Hour broadcast this week for a searchlight survey seeking ways to eliminate conflict between nations.

Speaking on the topic, "Peace in a War Wracked World," the noted theologian called for a reappraisal of scriptural statements concerning war. Every clash of the nations, he asserted, retards the work of the church and even the most necessary struggle for national defense helps to deteriorate morals, give freer reign to animal lusts, and promotes profiteering in the name of righteousness. "Our only hope of individual as well as national peace," Dr. Maier added, "lies in personal and trusting faith in Jesus Christ. Regardless of any conditions that war or a post-war period may bring, we can find comfort and courage in the promise of the Scriptures just past emergency. The churches, too, can make themselves increasingly useful to the individual and to the nation by returning to the plain teachings of the Saviour instead of catering to modern thought with a 'soft religion' which speaks so often of easy living and prosperity, and so often forgets Christ's warning to his followers: 'In the world ye shall have tribulations.'"

Delinquents able to save homes by monthly pay plan

County Treasurer John Toman this week reports a collection of $2,171,000 in delinquent taxes through his Bureau of Tax Delinquency, taxes he says never would have been collected but for this plan. Not only has he brought in these added taxes, says Toman, but through the bureau he has saved close to 8,000 homes from forfeiture for the small home owner.

Under this plan delinquents are able to pay their back taxes on a monthly payment plan and with three years to do so. The treasurer declares he put this plan into operation two years ago when he learned that thousands of small home owners faced the loss of their property—in many cases representing their life's savings—because they could not pay their bills in a lump sum. Under this plan Toman also cut penalties of 50%. Two thousand five hundred taxpayers are still paying off their back taxes under this plan.

"Itchy" Fish
"Itchy" fish are a source of Yugoslavia's natural wealth. The Adriatic sea is rich in tuna fish, but a marine parasite attaches itself to the gills of the fish. The tortured tuna go to the jagged rocks of the Dalmatian coast to "scratch" themselves, and it is on this side of the sea that they are caught. The Italian shore is sandy and almost rockless and affords the fish no such convenience.

Mrs. Bruno Schulz left Wheeling on Sunday and is now making her home in Chicago.

The Howard Bingham family motored to Bloomington on Tuesday to attend the Senior Music Recital of their daughter, Miss Margaret Bingham at Illinois Wesleyan College. Miss Bingham has specialized on the cello and is a member of Sigma Iota sorority.

Shine up your boots, put on your newest overalls and your prettiest dance jamboree and be all set for the barn community hall on Saturday evening, Nov. 15. The fun is scheduled to begin at 8:30 o'clock. Gilbert's Harmony Boys will be ready with tunes to suit both young and old. Admission will be 45 cents plus 5 cents tax. Refreshments will be on sale. The proceeds will benefit the program of the Wheeling Recreation club for the youth of the community.

The Mother's club met last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Day. This season the club has chosen "Great Women" as the theme for their program. Mrs. Franklin Zollner was program leader for the day which was based on the life of Harriet Beecher Stowe.

Nine members of Wheeling Camp R. N. A. attended the Friend's night and 35th anniversary meeting of Glenview camp last week. The five neighbors of Wheeling camp who filled stations were Neighbors Sophia Allison, asst. marshal; Mildred Johnson, Faith; Marie Schultz, Entrance; Agnes Becker, outer sentinel; and Olga Bailey, manager.

Mrs. Dalton Wright and son Robert received painful injuries when their car was hit while attempting to back from their driveway onto Milwaukee avenue early on Saturday evening. They were removed to Evanston hospital where they were hospitalized for several days.

The Charles Schreiber family moved from Chicago this week and are now living in the Sicks flat.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bingham enjoyed a vacation trip to Minnesota last week. At Northfield, Mrs. Bingham attended several reunions of former neighbors and college classmates. The Bingham's also visited friends in Minneapolis and spent a lot of time with Mr. Bingham's parents in Milton, Wis.

The Elmer Hoffman family moved from Wheeling on Tuesday and are now living in their own home on Chestnut ave., in Deerfield, Pa. Helen's Beauty Shop will be interested to learn that Mrs. Hoffman will continue her beauty work in her new home.

Mrs. J. A. Schminke closed up her home last week and has gone to spend the winter months with her niece Mrs. Joseph Glatz in Chicago.

Andrew Anderson enjoyed a double season of pleasant hunting this year. Several weeks ago he visited his parents at Arlington, Minnesota and took advantage of the earlier season to bag some of the birds there.

Relatives and friends here were shocked to receive word of the death of Fred Gottschalk, who was killed in an auto accident, which occurred on Pfingsten and Willow roads on Sunday evening.

The annual Roll Call of the American Red Cross is now in progress. The Roll Call is for the purpose of raising funds to carry on the services of the Red Cross in the United States and its possessions. Other funds are available for international service.

The Red Cross is supported entirely by voluntary contributions and receives no support from city, state or federal funds. It is a membership organization and everyone who contributes one dollar or more not only gives the Red Cross financial support but may vote at the annual meetings of the local chapters.

This year the Red Cross is faced with a greatly increased field of service both to our civilian population and to our armed forces. More first aid, home nursing, nutrition classes must be held. More volunteers must be trained for special services. By act of congress it has specific obligations for our soldiers and sailors.

The November issue of the Red Cross Courier gives a graphic description of the work of the Red Cross in the Army camps, including pictures and incidents of the Louisiana maneuvers. Those interested may see this issue at the Wheeling post office.

Every home should display the Red Cross emblem this year. Secure your membership from a member of your local committee. Those who are giving their voluntary services for the 1942 Roll Call are Mrs. Merle Willis, Mrs. Arthur Fassbender, Mrs. James Bailey, Mrs. Victor Haben and Miss Lucille Schneider.

BUICK BUILDS FOR DEFENSE

Our assignment:
Building Pratt & Whitney valve-in-head aircraft engines for defense use.

MAYBE it's a little hard to picture this trim Buick as it will look on that unknown day when you come to turn it in.

There may be scars in its fenders, and use-stains on its upholstery—but the thing that matters is it'll still be going great guns.

You can count on that husky valve-in-head straight-eight to be ticking off the miles with the satisfying extra efficiency it now boasts.

You can rely on Compound Carburetion† to hold your gas-costs down, squeezing every last power-packed mile out of the fuel you burn.

There won't be any loss of easy comfort in those all-coil springs, or any need for care to keep them gentle.

As for the drive—well, there's just nothing to go wrong with a simple steel shaft encased in a stout torque tube!

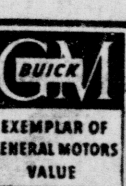

†Available at slight extra cost on Buick SPECIAL models, standard on all other Series.

Tires? You may be through the second or third set before you're finished with any car you buy now—but those Buick broad-rim wheels will see to it you get the top mileage each can give.

As for such things as connecting rods and bearings—Buick rods are extra strong, while tests show that our oil-cushioned bearings last twice as long as others under the same load and service.

So go right ahead! Buy this Buick on its last mile instead of its first. That's the smart way to buy these times.

Of this you can be sure: No other car's going to offer greater surety of

So far—so good!

RIGHT NOW, Illinois Bell telephones are handling millions of calls more each week than last year.

To help keep the service up to standard, your telephone company has had to spend this year some $30,000,000 for new lines and new equipment as well as increasingly larger amounts for maintenance and operation.

As we reach these higher peaks, we face, like almost every one else, the question of adequate supply of materials. Most telephone equipment is salvaged for reuse, and wherever possible we have developed substitutes for those materials needed in national defense. Our aim, as always, is to maintain the best possible telephone service, and we are glad we can still say "So far—so good."

Housewife can build up library for her own use

More than 66 publications on homemaking are available to Cook county women who wish to know the latest information in home economics, according to Home Adviser, Mary L. Wright.

Among publications available are those on cookies for all occasions, salads for variety, how to buy values in textiles and clothing, home canning of foods for family use, water and plumbing systems for farm homes, soybeans as a food, music for the home, your family food chart, frozen desserts, good bread from Illinois soft wheat flour and curtains and draperies.

Prepared by authorities of the University of Illinois College of Agriculture, the material is available free of charge and may be obtained from the home adviser's office or the extension service in agriculture and home economics of the university.

One of the most popular booklets is called "Protective Foods for Buoyant Health in Work and Play." It lists all the known food essentials, their contribution to physical health and their source in everyday foods.

Another equally useful booklet has to do with preparation of the school lunch, including suggestions for planning, preparing and serving a hot dish to supplement the lunch brought from home. For homemakers who wish to improve their cake-making ability, there is the publication entitled "Success With Shortened Cakes." Similarly a booklet is available on making yeast breads.

From the home furnishings standpoint, popular booklets are those on handmade rugs, refinishing furniture, making slip covers and reupholstering furniture. Home management publications answer such questions as building a sink cabinet, making a home filing cabinet from an old phonograph, selecting electric equipment, sewing machine adjustment and care and kitchen storage spaces.

For housewives who wish to be more efficient managers, there is more efficient managers, there is

Truck gardeners plan helpful program

Louis Wetterman will call the State Vegetable Growers Association meeting to order in Hotel Nelson, Tuesday morning, November 18, at Rockford. The topics for consideration the first day are the vegetable seed situation, how to get humus in soils, variety trials, experiments running at the Des Plaines Station, and public relations problems of the growers. The banquet will be held that evening.

Next Wednesday topics will be studies in the Chicago Marketing area, direct seeding of tomatoes, European Corn Borer, Cucumber and Thrip Control. Growers who can should plan to attend.

European corn pest continues spread westward

In spite of all the suppressive measures taken to keep the European corn borer in check, it has been slowly spreading westward across nearly half of Illinois, according to W. P. Flint, entomologist of the University of Illinois College of Agriculture and Illinois State Natural History Survey.

Since borers were found in five Illinois counties in 1939, a total of 43 counties are known to have been infested.

The insect has not caused any commercial damage the past year, and will not cause any serious damage in 1942, although it is building up quite rapidly owing to climatic conditions in most of the infested areas in Illinois. A check made in 1941 in Kankakee, Iroquois and Vermilion counties showed that 60 to 70 per cent of the borers were two-brooded, making for a more rapid build-up.

The best method of controlling the European corn borer, according to Flint, includes clean farming, followed by the planting of resistant hybrids on the proper date according to the fertility of the land. Clean farming includes the plowing under as cleanly as possible of all crop refuse and weeds in the fall, so the borer may pass the winter. This can be done effectively in the fall, early winter or early spring. Most damage has occurred in Ohio where susceptible hybrid and open-pollinated corn was planted early on fertile land.

Scouts of the State Department of Agriculture, working in 1940 under the direction of H. F. Seifert, chief plant inspector, and entomologists of the State Natural History Survey, found that Lake, Cook, DuPage, Will and Kankakee counties were infested.

Scouting continued in 1940 and Winnebago, McHenry, DeKalb, Kane, Kendall, Grundy, Livingston, McLean, Ford, Iroquois, Champaign and Vermilion counties were found to be infested.

Scouting by both state and federal agencies in 1941 has revealed the presence of borers in 26 additional counties—Stephenson, Boone, Carroll, Ogle, Lee, Bureau, LaSalle, Putnam, Marshall, Peoria, Woodford, Tazewell, Logan, DeWitt, Piatt, Macou, Christian, Shelby, Moultrie, Douglas, Edgar, Coles, Clark, Cumberland, Crawford and Lawrence.

As scouting is still going on, Flint says it is probable that several other counties will be found infested this year.

Although there is no reason to fear any damage from the pest next year, Flint says it is time for everyone to become familiar with the habits of the borer and the measures that should be used in combating it.

Careful studies are being conducted by the U. of I. departments of agronomy and agricultural engineering and the State Natural History Survey to develop the best and most practical methods of corn borer control in Illinois.

A new circular giving the latest information on corn borer control is now being prepared and will be available for distribution sometime this winter.

BOTH SIDES OF THE TURKEY QUESTION

According to Grandma, there was just one way to roast a turkey. Once you learned that one way, you were an honorable and respected alumna of the turkey-roasting school. This is the way it's done by the—

OLD-STYLE METHOD

The night before the feast (whether Thanksgiving, Christmas or a wedding), place the stuffing in the body cavity of turkey, and truss. It's already now for the oven. In the morning, rub the outside of the bird with butter—or any mild shortening—then dredge it thoroughly with flour which has salt and pepper blended through it. Lay thin strips of fat salt pork over the breast.

Now place the turkey in the roaster with a few stalks of celery around it—the coarse outer stalks that are too unwieldy for table consumption. Now place the pan and turkey in a very hot oven, 475° F., and let it bake uncovered for 15 minutes. This browns it very nicely. Now pull out the pan, cover it tightly—shove it back into the oven which has cooled considerably. Keep the heat down to slow moderate—now that's 325° F. on an oven with a regulator—which grandma didn't have.

Plan 20 minutes a pound for roasting (after that first 15 minutes of browning). Every half hour, pull out the pan—remove the cover and "baste"—that is, dip hot water with butter in it, over the turkey. You'd start with 1 cup of hot water which had 2 tbs. of butter in it. By this method it would take a little over 3 1/2 hours to roast a 10 pound turkey—and 4 hours for a 12 pound bird.

Better Insulated Ovens Simplify Baking

There's no question but that Grandma's turkey made super-delicious eating. Therefore those who still insist on roasting their turkey the way Grandma did, have good reasons. However, new and better insulated ovens have simplified the baking of many foods—among them turkey and other fowls. So here's the new simplified method for roasting turkey.

NEW METHOD

Rub the outside of stuffed, trussed turkey with butter and an open roaster with a trivet or rack in the bottom. Have the oven regulator set at 300° F.—that's a slow oven. Put the turkey in this oven and roast WITHOUT basting and without covering. Keep the oven door closed during the entire roasting period! No peeking—and no need for peering. Figure 1/2 hour per pound, if you are roasting a 10 to 12 pound bird. That means 5 hours. Or if it's a 12 pound bird you'll need 6 hours. A gigantic 15 to 20 pound turkey will require only 20 minutes per pound. While a 30 pound bird—if you should ever have one that large—will only require 18 minutes per pound.

That's all there is to it. Figure out how long your turkey must roast. Then go about your other work and don't worry about it. At 300° F. it isn't likely to get scorched or burned. You'll get plenty of compliments on a turkey that has been roasted by this new method.

Removing Division Fences—A section of the Illinois fence law provides that if any person wishes to remove all or part of a division fence owned by him and allow his lands to lie open, he shall give the adjoining owner one year's notice, in writing, of his intention to do so. The adjoining owner then may have the value of the fence determined by fence viewers and pay or offer to pay for such fence.

In applying this law the Courts of Illinois have laid down the following principles:

1. The notice must be in writing, as required by law, and must be delivered one year in advance of removal.

2. The lands formerly bounded by the division fence must lie open and unused for agricultural purposes. Otherwise the owner is still responsible for maintenance of his share of a division fence.

3. An owner removing a division fence without having given adequate notice is liable for damages accruing to the adjoining owner. This is also provided in the law.

4. When a division fence is removed without due notice, an adjoining owner has a right to protect himself by rebuilding the fence at the expense of the owner who wrongfully removed it.

The law also provides that when a fence has by mistake been built on the land of an adjoining owner, it may be removed to the correct property line within six months after the survey determining that it was incorrectly placed. However, the removal can not be made at a time when the adjoining owner's crops will be exposed. Also if the fence was constructed of materials taken from the adjoining owner's land he must be paid before a removal can be made.

The laws referred to are in the Illinois Revised Statutes, Chapter 54, Sections 14-17.

Prices of Dairy products likely to increase more

Prices of dairy products will likely continue to rise so long as persons who buy these products are gainfully employed, says C. S. Rhode, extension dairy specialist of the University of Illinois College of Agriculture.

With the stimulus of increasing consumer income and purchases for defense needs, prices of all dairy products in the past four months have been the highest since 1930. The ratio of butterfat prices to feed-grain prices during the past three months has been among the most favorable ever recorded.

Dairymen who are not awake to this situation will fail to "cash in" as much as those who have recognized an opportunity to sell more dairy products at attractive prices. Now is the time to work the dairy herd to safe capacity. By careful feeding and management, production may be safely stepped up and held at high and profitable levels, Rhode pointed out.

Some herds are not getting enough feed, while others do not receive as much protein in the ration as is required for the most profitable production. With adequate supplies of farm grains available, there is a tendency to

Homemakers try counterattack on food prices

The well known squeeze on the family food budget calls for some clever counterattacking by economical housewives.

It's not wise to cut down on the amount of milk served to the family, says Mrs. Glenna Lambkin of the department of home economics, University of Illinois College of Agriculture, but there's no reason why a homemaker can not use skim milk for cooking. With the daily use of butter no serious effects will come from such an adjustment. Evaporated or canned milk offers another way to save on the weekly milk bill.

When foods authorities the country over are agreed that from the health standpoint a child or growing adolescent needs at least one quart of milk a day and an adult needs a pint of milk, there is no saving from the standpoint of health protection in using less milk. Cheese, with cottage cheese probably the cheapest form now on the market, offers another milk equivalent.

Another way that homemakers can economize on the food bill is to use cheaper cuts of meat in stews and pot roasts. Shoulder cuts of meat usually represent good buys. At times, price fluctuations in meat may make port or beef the "best buy" for the week. Thus a constant study of prices is important.

Mrs. Lambkin emphasized the use of some of the less expensive meat organs such as pork liver and kidney dishes which rate exceedingly high in food value. While homemakers will have to rely on canned fruits to a large extent this coming season and will have to meet a rise in prices, it is well to know that the quality having the lowest percentage of sugar in the sirup is usually cheaper and just as satisfactory.

Definite savings can sometimes be made by purchasing number 10 size cans of some kinds of fruit if the family size warrants it, the foods authority said.

Concerning vegetables, the best thing to do is watch the market and buy those which offer the most for money spent. Cabbage is always cheaper than Brussels Sprouts, yet they can be substituted for one another, Mrs. Lambkin said.

Elephant Hides Oiled
The hides of circus elephants are oiled regularly to keep them from cracking.

use them extensively with only minimum amounts of high protein supplements. Higher and more economical production will be obtained under existing conditions if the grain mixture is carefully balanced to fit available roughage and is fed in liberal amounts according to production, Rhode explained.

Farm develops clover insurance on fertile land

There's no crop insurance program for clover yet, but J. P. Kratz, farmer living near Monticello, has solved the clover failure problem on his farm by seeding his wheat in double-width drill rows.

A standard seven-inch space wheat drill is used with every second drill tube shut off so the rows are seeded 14 inches apart. Seeding is adjusted to approximately double rate in each row, making the actual seeding rate the same as usual.

All of the low testing soil on his fertile livestock farm has been treated with limestone and rock phosphate, and this method of seeding wheat has been used on more than 100 acres during each of the past eight years. His success with clover stands has been 100 per cent, while failures were quite common before the broad-space-wheat-seeding method was adopted. Lodging is reduced by the shorter, stiffer-strawed wheat growth in the broad-spaced fields. If lodging occurs, it is usually less injurious to the seeding.

Wheat yields have been high, comparing well with those obtained with the standard seven-inch drill rows. Kratz believes that the two-to-four-bushel lower yield which his wheat has made the past few seasons has been repaid many times by his excellent pastures.

Bensenville invades Arlington court for cage test Friday

by G. A. McELROY

The basketball season is at hand. All the schools in this area will be opening the season this coming week-end or at least by the Thanksgiving holidays. The conference season in both the Northeast and Northwest Conferences opens Friday, November 28. On that date Arlington will be at home to Libertyville, Palatine will be host to Elmhurst and Bensenville will play at Wauconda. Meanwhile Arlington meets Bensenville twice in pre-season games starting Friday night and also has a game next week Friday with Highland Park. Palatine, after playing at New Trier Friday, will engage the Alumni at the annual homecoming next Wednesday.

Close Races Predicted

At this time the outlook in both conferences is for a very evenly matched field of teams. Every team has lost at least several of their best boys from last year, but nearly all have at least several experienced players returning. We have an idea that the championship in either league could be taken by a team losing but two games. We can't see anyone strong enough to dominate the conferences this year by the margins that Crystal Lake and Woodstock have the last two years in the Northeast and that Palatine piled up in the Northwest. All this indicates that the races will be closer and more interesting with a lot of games won by narrow margins.

Only Two Important Rule Changes

There are few important changes in the rules this season. Two stand out as having some effect upon the game. This year the three second rule has been modified and does not apply to the half of the free throw circle farthest from the basket. A player may stand in that area as long as he wishes with or without the ball on offense without penalty. Only three seconds are allowed in the remainder of the circle and free throw lanes as in the past.

Another change allows substitutions immediately after the scoring of field goals. This will tend to slow down the game at times especially in the late stages when it becomes a race horse affair. After the center jump was eliminated several years ago substitutions were not allowed following either successful free throws or field goals. Last year they were allowed after free throws but not field goals.

19 Year Proposal Failed

The effort to amend the rules of the State High School Association to bar 19 year old athletes failed when put to a vote at the state meeting of principals at Champaign last Friday. It had been recommended for passage by the state legislative commission. The Cook County Herald opposed the passage of this rule. Another rule which failed to pass was that which aimed to eliminate spring football practice. However, practically all the conferences in this area have their own rules forbidding spring gridiron. New rules which did pass included one prohibiting football games until teams had practiced for three weeks and allowing the start of the practice on August 25. This will mean that schools which ordinarily open the day after Labor day will have practice for two weeks before school starts this next year. Football coaches will

Veteran Bisons engage Cardinals in first game

Basketball makes its bow for the 1941-42 season this Friday night when Bensenville's Bisons take the floor at Arlington Heights against the Cardinals. The game will be one of three non-conference tilts for the Arlington flock which precede the conference opener with Libertyville on November 28. Both others are road games, so this will be the only chance for most fans to get a preview of this year's edition of the high school basketball team.

Coach John Kirby will bring to town a veteran Bison herd which promises to cause plenty of trouble to would-be champions of the Northwest Conference. They are given pre-season rating as a contender for the top, although the dimensions of the Arlington floor may cause them difficulties in this meeting with the Cardinals of the Northeast loop.

With only a week of practice back of them at the time this was written the Cards are an almost unknown quantity. Two veterans return from the team which played some good and some bad ball but was trounced badly only once last year. Herman Becker, a forward, and James Milay, a guard, are the two. Neither is large but both are dangerous scoring threats and they are good material around which to fit the parts to a new machine.

The rest of the squad will consist of players from Roy Campbell's good junior-varsity team of last year plus one boy, Edward Gleason, who moved into the school district during the summer. Two will not be available, however, as Morici has given up basketball and Dorband is no longer in school.

The Cardinals will not boast all-around height this year, although two boys, Maseng and Aldrich, are over six feet. Speed, ball-handling, and accurate shooting plus good defense must be relied on for success.

Football injuries to five first-line players are greatly handicapping them in those departments, so that predictions about the prospects of the team are out of order at present.

The Arlington squad consists of Herman Becker, Orville Bolte, Charles Hamburg, Leif Maseng, Richard Ross, Richard Maloney, seniors; Jack Aldrich, Tom Coleman, Edward Gleason, Roy Campbell, Wharper, Paul Merrill, Robert Moss and Donald Peeters, juniors. In addition there are about twenty boys practicing regularly from whom a junior-varsity squad will be selected.

Bisons rely on four regulars in '42 season

By G. A. McELROY

Bensenville will again be a team to consider in the Northwest Conference race. That is the outlook for the coming season. It has been several years since the Bisons had a top notch outfit and a long time since they won a championship. Friday the Bisons play at Arlington and a pretty good idea of the strength of the team will be indicated by that game. If they play the Cards on even terms or beat them, then look out for Bensenville's Bisons. Hayes expects his Arlington quintet to be one of the better teams in the Northeast league.

Coach Kirby is rather optimistic at Bensenville. He has two of his best regulars back in George Gutnik, a husky six foot guard, and George Bumann, a six foot, two inch center. John Custer (5-7), a junior, was a regular forward during the second semester last year after becoming eligible. Walter Bornack (5-10), another junior, was a varsity squad member last year.

Bensenville had a mighty good junior varsity team last year, losing most of their defeats by close scores. Boys who played with the lights and are on the first squad are as follows: Jess South (5-7), senior; George Kernats (5-9), sophomore; Walter Tett (5-10), junior; George Reetz (5-9), senior; Lawrence Geils (5-6), senior; Bill Coakley (6-2), senior; Delbert Mahler (5-10), senior; Bob Keifer (6 ft), senior; and Harvey Schultz (5-10), senior.

If intelligibility or sickness do not cut into the Bensenville lineup, the prospects are that the Bisons will give a very good account of themselves this year.

Harold W. Giesecke will coach Pesch, Clark, Neugart, Schloman the junior varsity squad which includes Fairchild, Jankers, Miller, Houson, Benham, Schoppe, Holstrom and Bumann.

"I Have 'Measles'" During roll call in Battery C of the Fifty-fourth training battalion, in Camp Callan, the top sergeant heard one of his platoon sergeants cry: "Measles!" "Who has measles?" the top kick barked. "I have," was the sergeant's answer. "When did you get measles?" "I've had Measles all the time," the sergeant answered pointing to Private James R. Measles, who had measles when he was 15.

Growing Season Two Months In the Far North, in Greenland, the growing season for plants lasts barely two months in the year.

Red Birds lose 19-6; meet Rocky's Ponies in home final Sunday

Northwest conference basketball lives under par of last season

(This is the first of two articles reviewing the basketball prospects in the Northwest Conference.)

By G. A. McELROY

Wauconda's Northwest Conference prospects are not as good as last season yet it seems likely that Coach Herrmann's boys will develop into a good team. Wauconda has finished second in the league the past two years.

Coach Herrmann has four lettermen out of eight returning. Froelich, Porten and Werden are the regulars who graduated leaving a big gap to be filled. Dunker, another letterman moved away.

Oswald, outstanding performer of this year's team, will finish his eight semesters of eligibility at the end of the present semester and thus will miss four conference games. He is a forward standing five feet ten inches in height. Other lettermen are Pankonin, senior, (6 feet); Whitman, junior, (5-8); and Case, junior, (5-7). Dianis who was out last season due to a hunting accident is on the varsity team at guard. Second team boys on the squad are Harris, senior, (5-6); Berkley, junior, (5-11); and Ahrens, senior, (6 feet). Allen, a six foot transfer from Calumet high of Chicago, may make the team. He is out at present with a broken arm suffered in Chicago football before moving to Wauconda. A lot depends on how good he turns out to be.

According to Coach Herrmann he has a fine bunch of boys this year who are hard workers and have a good team spirit. They expect to give everyone in their league top notch competition but may not finish above fourth or fifth place in the standings.

Prospects Poor at Northbrook

John W. Walgren, who comes to Northbrook from Iowa, Iowa, will coach the Vikings this year. Prospects are not very bright. Two good players are available in Quentin Strauss, regular forward, and Klein, center, but the rest of the material is inexperienced. Only the two boys are left from last year's varsity squad which won six and lost four.

Inasmuch as the Northbrook lightweights did not win a game last year the quality of material moving up to the first squad will be much below par. Northbrook will have to hustle to stay out of last place this year. Strauss and Klein who stand just under six feet in height are the tallest boys on the squad. Other squad members are likely to be Brown, Klug, Christman and Hoffman, seniors and Scherer, a junior.

Grant Is Not Optimistic

Grant will have to depend largely upon the lightweight team which tied with Palatine for the title last season. Coach Werhan's prospects are hard to rate on this basis and as most of his boys are juniors the Bulldogs may have to wait until 1942-43 to be a title threat.

Veterans returning are Capt. McFeeley, (6-1), forward; Kosky, (6 feet) forward and E. Gersten, (5-11), guard. Kosky has been ineligible for basketball except on occasions and is the best boy on the squad. Gersten spent more of last season on the lightweights than he did with the varsity providing most of the scoring punch for that outfit.

Other boys on the squad who played lightweight ball last year are Rosing, junior, (5-9); Miller, junior, (6 feet); Baldwin, junior, (5-10); Cunningham, junior, (5-10); Hoag, junior, (6 feet); B. Gerresten, sophomore, (6-1); Vickers, Alfred and Kolan are transfer students about whom little is known. Grant will have one of the tall teams of the league and if the younger boys come through may be much tougher than generally rated.

Bronchos Due to have Winner

Barrington's chances in the Northwest Conference are better than last season when the Bronchos tied with Antioch and Grant for fourth place with five games won and five lost. Last year Barrington had no regulars returning but had a championship lightweight team from the previous year. This outfit did not click and Barrington had its poorest season in years.

This year Barrington has three lettermen plus the boys from a second team squad which lost but two games. Ed Tichy, a forward, and Tom English, a guard were regulars last year and both are six footers. Dick Zimmerman, (5-10), guard saw lots of action at guard last year. Members of the lights coming up are practically all juniors so future prospects are bright. Other squad members besides the lettermen are Dewitz, (6 feet), Waller, (5-9), Johnson, (5-9), Miller, (5-10), Moore, (5-7), Homuth, (5-10), Farwell, (5-10), Pietsch, (5-11), and Rieke, (5-8). Coach Herb Bricker is not too optimistic but the guess is that Barrington will be a factor in the forthcoming league race in both divisions. T. C. Hofsford will direct the Barrington lightweights.

Woodstock looks fair, Leyden hard put in N-E race

by G. A. McELROY

The Woodstock Blue Streaks who won the Northeast championship last year lost all but one of their regulars by graduation yet will have a pretty fair team. The returning regular is Bob Schimmel a six foot junior guard. Two first string subs of last year who are expected to be regulars are Capt. Bruce Kline who will likely play center and Harry O'Brien, a junior forward. Kline is an inch over six feet and O'Brien, an even six feet in height.

Woodstock has only four seniors on their basketball squads this year. Capt. Kline is one and the others are Miles (5-9), Corey (5-9½), and Distimer (5-8½). The last three named were lightweight regulars last season. Other first squad prospects who are juniors are Garbe (6-2), Phillips (5-9), Hogan (5-9½), Oleson (5-9½), and Low (5-9½). Hogan is a transfer student from Antioch and was on the varsity squad there last year.

Frank Hendricks will coach the Woodstock junior varsity which is limited to underclass boys. Ken Zimmerman handles the varsity group. Woodstock lost but one varsity game and finished in a second place tie in junior division last season.

Leyden's Giants Are Gone

Coach Sam England will almost have to start from scratch this year in developing a team at Leyden. For a number of years the Eagles were unusually tall with such boys as the Doss twins and Pruter around 6-5 in height. This year England has but one six footer on his squad. Except for Nuzzo none of the Franklin Park boys have had much of any varsity experience. Nuzzo (5-9) is a senior and so is Smith who started out on the first team last year, but was in only a little while due to bad ankles. Ayers (5-7) moved up to the varsity at tournament time.

Boys from the junior varsity moving up are Steingraber (5-10), senior; Michels (6-2), senior; J. Charleston (5-11), senior; Ruff (5-8), senior; F. Charleston (5-8), junior; Greene (5-9), junior; Hazucha (5-10), sophomore; and Lofgren (5-10), sophomore.

Leyden has no pre-season games before the conference opener. Prospects are pretty dim and Leyden definitely seems doomed to a second division position after a string of very good ball clubs.

Dr. H. J. Carr's fleet Arlington Heights Redbirds were anything but fleet during the first three quarters of last Sunday's game with the Fleck's 45th Ward eleven of Chicago. They committed mental errors on offense and gave fine exhibitions of "necking" when trying to pull down a ball carrier. They came back splendidly in the last quarter to look something like their own selves. Trailing 19 to 0 with nine minutes left to play, the Birds fairly pushed the Chicagoans all over Recreation Park to wind up a tremendous 80-yard march with a touchdown. Ray ("Farmer") Willert, slugging out-felder impressario, dove over from the 2-yard line for the score.

The Red birds were morally jacked at the opening whistle when Colas, Fleck's diminutive quarterback, ran back the kick-off 95 yards for a touchdown. Dr. Carr's locals were handicapped in that they needed man-power. Only fifteen players were available. Goedke, the giant lineman, was out with a bad leg. Ken Koelling, probably the fastest man in the back field, has been out because of an injury since the second tilt of the season.

Physician's race with the stork and emergencies makes him a leading car user, says "Automobile Facts." The car-owning doctor in America averages 842 round-trips a year to visit patients, a survey shows. Of all groups of car users, the doctors' cars rank next to the top, their average distance traveled in a year being 12,932 miles per car. And according to surveys, necessity driving accounted for 8,640 miles of the total. By comparison, traveling salesmen who lead the occupational list of car users, have an average annual mileage of 18,791 miles, though their number of round-trips are less.

Palatine tops Wauconda 26-24 in practice tilt

Palatine came from behind in the last two minutes to outscore Wauconda 26-24 in a practice game last week Wednesday evening. Neither team was hitting the basket with much consistency. Schwolow who scored six baskets, tossed in a pair of them in the final minute and a half to put Palatine in front. Harris also played well for Palatine. Oswald was Wauconda's top scorer.

The Palatine lightweights took Wauconda's measure 17-11 in a preliminary game the same night. Jack Kunze, Billy Hartman, and Harvey Oltendorf were among the Palatine lights who showed to good advantage. Hartman suffered a severe knee injury and is temporarily out of the lineup.

Friday Palatine scrimmaged Dundee for the second time and played much improved ball though coming out in the short end of a 44-19 count. The same afternoon Wauconda trounced Grant 33-15 in a scrimmage. Grant has had very limited practice and will have a better team than this score would indicate.
